The Excellence in the Santa Orientad, and in this province have universally tried it when the wool be cut off and now they are reaping immidiate every where in their flocks pleasing results; the value of the wool saved by the first application of this remedy would more than pay for all the sheep wash which the farmer might require for the next twelve years.

So many remedies have been advertised and foisted that the agents for the best to conduct with a direct preference, but as several fine principles have known exactly the wool and proved its utility no one can deservedly refer to these parties if necessary

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1862.

THE NEW TOWN-COUNCIL.

As 1862 draws to a close, the prospect of a new Municipality flits before our imaginations, and everyone, with a laudable zeal to save the city, busies himself to make a list of the elect Patricians. Unluckily all are not agreed on the happy individuals and hence the names, mentioned by different correspondents in the daily papers, would outnumber the Legion of Honour.

When Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt, respectable people were very scarce, not half a dozen altogether; but in Buenos Aires the most foppish patriot may safely say Esparta has many a nobler son than I," for, at least 5,000 are recommended as aldermen. How it comes to pass that our Municipality cannot muster a quorum of ordinary intelligence, is a paradox. The elections give, generally, a result unfavorable to rational pride; and the Board of Gold Fingers is united without the effervescence of enthusiasm.

Alas! that there is no bed of Procrustes whereby to measure the excesses or short comings of town councillors; no city Argus unless the painted coach, to watch over their proceedings. The energies and attention of each successive guild are confined to some new phase of the gas question, to multitudinous plans of water works which serve for amusement, like a Chinese puzzle, to ingenious inventions of fines, to the devices of fire-works for Independence Day &c. &c.

Blundering is the order of the day, from the policeman on guard who holds his gun in the wrong hand, down to the civic architect who places archiepiscopal decorations and the Jews' candlestick over the Cathedral porch.

But the sins of commission are as nought compared to the grand fault of our city-fathers—the omission to carry out many more sure calculated to serve or adorn the capital. In 1862 they have not made the water-works, they have not instituted the Southern cemetery, they have not coated the column of Liberty with marble, they have not excavated the area before the Cabildo, they have not improved the streets or outlets, they have not been punctual in meeting at their classic rendezvous.

A week yet remains ere the elections come off let us hope our friends will meanwhile put on their considering-cap. Of our colleagues we would beg a favor—to their intermittent list. Our country can take little interest in the matter, although they can vote, by registering themselves before Saturday. Two of our subscribers are proposed by the Nacion Argentina, but we regret to have in such humbugs; we will be true to the country of our children and of our adoption, in the hour of need.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our National Government has wisely resolved to continue the monthly amortizement of paper money, by burning the proceeds of extra-duties. Notes have been exchanged between Dr. Barsfield, finance minister, and the Governor of the province, which will appear in this occasion of public credit will be strictly adhered to.

Mr. Greenway's cargo of ice has been made subject to customdues, the first instance on record of taxing water imported for present use. We understand the imitators are also about to abolish the immunities granted to printing materials, so that the Custom-house will soon become a unpopular as the Casa de Socorro.

The representation of La Nacional has vanished into nought—some say it is a proof of the liberality of the pious D. Mayer, others think Government acted on a prudent principle, as the last calamity G. Rivas inflicted on her. We have received assurances from Ranchos, Pilar, Pergamino and other districts, that our camp subscribers would go with the man in town, to pay any indemnity.

We thank the authorities of Entre Rios for their ready co-operation with our worthy viceconsul, Mr. McDougall, who has contributed much valuable info to the Argentine Consular Report. It is a remarkable contrast with the treatment we experienced from Mr. Lottsom of Montevideo, who recently observed with surprise that the B. government was a profitmaker, received a license; and a dutiful payer of taxes, and is a detective paler of officers."

The Indians have committed greater depredations than was previously supposed at Cabeza Tigre, S. Fe, and next month the Lancers will have killing one man and robbing seventeen others. Their force amounted to some 300 warriors.

The Spanish Admiral Topete, arrived on Saturday to visit General Mitre; some of his staff attended the grand ball given by the viceroy in the Plaza Victoria.

The Bolivs are about to leave for Montevideo where Mons. Lamine Lyon will probably gain many sympathies.

Governor Saavedra is making great reforms; the cottages have to be cleaned and painted, and the streets sweep three times a week. Their officers amounted to some 300 warriors.

Sr. Catalsi, after a brief existence, has suddenly re-appeared, and endeavors his business as of old.

Mr. Brown's lands at Barracas fetched good prices at the auction on Sunday, some lots being sold a 1750 $ per yard frontage. One purchaser got 6,000 $ for his lot of land, and there was much animation owing to the prospect of the Southern railway.

Several of our friends have initiated our examples, in the charter of the San Juan mining Co., and before long Mr. Gerard Rickard will have a share for all.

South American Republics, but also many European States might copy.

The Argentine Republic offers a home to the immigrant, and a welcome to the stranger. Its government is liberal and constitutional, its institutions republican and free, its inhabitants hospitable and friendly. This, then, is the country that we are told England, France and Spain are to invade; this is the country they are to subjugate and annex We may be divided as to the views our adopted fellow-countrymen may take on many, in trying to influence European reform unintentionally hurt their pride or wound their feelings; but we will answer for every foreigner in this hospitable country, that although we sign no Carta Argentina, we regret to have in such humbugs; we will be true to the country of our children and of our adoption, in the hour of need.

THE PERUVIAN HOBBY.

So much fuss and noise has been made by the native Press of this city about the Peruvian league and its rejection by the National Government, that possibly people may begin to attach more importance to the subject than it intrinsically merits.

We perceive that leagues and alliances are rather popular with a certain class of our fellow citizens. Petitions are got up and numerously written in support of these alliances.

To enrich these intermeddling politicians, to point to the Government the enemies against whom it should league, to prove to it that those enemies exist not in London, Paris, or Madrid, but in Buenos Aires, Santa Fé and other provinces is our object.

The signers of the petition at the Nacional office, remonstrate and complain because the Argentine Government has not leagued with Perú, and for what? Is it to keep back the Indian invasions which every day we read of? Is it to suppress the montoneros who go prowling through out this country, robbing and killing in broad day light? Is it to sweep the pirates off the rivers, the highwaymen off the roads, the vagrant gauchos off the pampas? Or is it to introduce immigration on a splendid scale—machinery to work your mines, cotton to sow in your pampas, railroad iron to defy distance.

Alas! no: would to God it were so. You labour to convince your fellow-countrymen that the countries which lent you money and arms to fight for independence, and generals to win it, have now resolved on your destruction. In proof of your assertion you point to Mexico.

Treason is a horrid crime, but ingratitude is worse.

Mexico has for 50 years been at strife with Europe. Argentine, have you done the same? Mexico has repudiated her foreign debts. Argentine, have you done so also? Mexico has invaded the houses of the foreign ministers, publicly ordered and sanctioned the murder of foreign merchants, dissolved social bonds, abrogated civil rights, and, owing Europe an enormous debt, plunged the country into the most frightful commotions, wasting and destroying the very means which years previously, had been hypothecated to foreign creditors. Complaint, remonstrance, even threats, were of no avail; patience and counsel to be a virtue. Religion alone let last arrived.

What is there, therefore, to justify the fears of foreign invasion in this country? What motive does there exist between Mexico and modern Argentine, that is to induce the latter, to traitor to his country, a reprobate of the worst caste, who dares to assert there is any?

Buenos Aires has set an example for honor and good pay, when it was desirable, not only other

Messrs Spalding and Rogers have purchased and rebuilt the Triantic Hannah, expressly for visiting the ports of South America, and the peculiar difficulties which are encountering their native land shall cease and again render practicable operations of the great extent to which they have been accustomed. With this view they propose to give a short season their brilliant and novel exhibitions, in the capital of the Argentine Republic.

General Director—

Mr Charles J. Rogers

Anybody who has been in the principal cities of South America, knows that not only are the citizens of Spalding and Rogers the most important in the country, but that they occupy the same position among the Equestrians of the country, as that the Medici among the great representatives.

Having competent & responsible partners with the whole of their immense companies at his immediate personal supervision of the management of the tour, Mr. J. C. Rogers, they are respectfully presented from all their engagements

Country stores supplied at wholesale; to push our selves, we have also, made reductions in all other articles, at even a greater one on retail prices; and to give an adequate idea of our prices, it is only necessary to say that, even in the present state of the market, we sell good strong brazes at 2 dollars the yard, and Pramatta Lustres at 2½, Barlour Barclay's—No. 1 at 3 dollars the piece of 20 English yards. Always on hand, Oilskin Hats, of the best of colors and sizes, straw hats, with leather linings, and silk lined, 20 dollars and upwards of all other descriptions, necessarily so to render it impossible to advertise them in detail. We merely invite attention to our general assortment, feeling the public that no doubt earlier opportunities for the goods supplied, but here no shabby can be found at the above quotations, provided the article be limited, never inferior or selling damaged goods to any sort.
